

SCROLL AGAINST PRIDE, ACCUSATION, AND THE SEEDERS OF DOUBT

June 21, 2026

Father in Heaven, we come before Your throne in the name of Yeshua HaMashiach who is come in the flesh, and we bring this scroll against the spirit of pride, the spirit of accusation, and every demon that seeds doubt into the hearts of Your people and into the atmosphere over their lives.

We identify these spirits now. They work together. Pride hardens the heart of the unbeliever. Accusation weakens the heart of the believer. And doubt sits between them both, whispering to one side that God is unnecessary and to the other side that God made a mistake choosing them. It is a three-headed operation and we come against all three heads now.

For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Hebrews 4:12.

We take up that sword now. Not a dull blade. Not a decorative weapon hanging above a mantelpiece. The living Word that cuts through every lie, every pretence, and every fortified wall of self-sufficiency that pride has built around the human heart.

We come against the pride that says I do not need God. The pride that has it all figured out. The pride that hides behind the idea of being a good person while denying the One who defines goodness. The pride that builds its own throne out of competence, achievement, morality, and self-assurance and then sits on it and calls itself righteous without ever bending a knee.

Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall. Proverbs 16:18.

We come against the hardened heart. The one that has heard the truth and sealed itself shut against it. The one that treats any mention of God as embarrassing, any testimony as madness, any encounter as delusion. That hardness is not intelligence. It is not sophistication. It is a fortress built by a demon to keep the light out, and we declare it cracked open now in the name of Yeshua HaMashiach who is come in the flesh.

Today if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts. Hebrews 3:15.

We come against the spirit that convinces people they are good enough without Him. That tells them their decency is sufficient. That whispers you do not need saving because you have not done anything that bad. That is the most dangerous lie in the enemy's arsenal because it does not push people away from God with force. It simply removes the urgency. It says there is no fire and the building is already burning.

As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one. Romans 3:10.

Now we turn to the remnant. We come for those who believe but have been beaten down by the accuser until they can barely stand.

We come against the spirit of accusation that tells the called ones they are not good enough. That reminds them of every mistake. That plays the highlight reel of their failures on repeat at three in the morning and says how could God possibly use someone like you. That whispers it was all in your head. The encounter was not real. The calling was not real. You imagined the whole thing.

And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. Revelation 12:10.

The accuser is cast down. Not tolerated. Not given a platform. Not allowed to present evidence. Cast down. We enforce that verdict now over every believer reading this scroll. The accusation is cancelled. The case is dismissed. The Judge has already ruled and He ruled in your favour because the blood of Yeshua already paid the penalty the accuser keeps trying to collect.

We come against the doubt that says you should have made it by now. That you should be further along. That if God was really with you, things would be easier, richer, smoother, more successful by the world's measurement. That is a Baal metric and we reject it. The Lord never promised you a lottery win. He promised you a cross and the power to carry it and the resurrection on the other side of it.

And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me. Luke 9:23.

We come against the demons that seed doubt through the atmosphere. Through algorithms that push content designed to undermine faith. Through carefully placed messages that say you are probably false, probably deluded, probably one of the ones Yeshua warned about. That atmospheric operation is identified and we shut it down. Every algorithm weaponised against the believer is jammed. Every digital whisper designed to erode confidence in the calling is silenced. Every screen that has been used as a delivery system for doubt is cleansed now in the name of Yeshua.

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Ephesians 6:12.

We come against every atmospheric attack that sets the air itself against the believer. The heaviness that descends without explanation. The fog that rolls in when you open your Bible. The sudden confusion when you try to pray. The fatigue that hits when you begin to write, to worship, to declare. That is not natural. That is coordinated. And we burn it out of the atmosphere now with holy fire.

We come against every principality that carries the spirit of pride over cities and nations. That keeps whole populations convinced they do not need God. That holds the atmosphere in a sealed state of arrogant self-sufficiency so thick that the gospel bounces off it like rain off concrete. We crack that seal. We break that lid. We declare the atmosphere opened over every territory where pride has locked the sky shut.

The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.
Psalm 34:18.

To every person who has been told they are not enough. To every believer whose past has been used as a weapon against their future. To every one who heard the voice of God and then spent years wondering if they made it up. You did not make it up. He spoke. He called. He chose you. And the accuser has been lying to you because your calling terrifies him.

We cast the accuser out. We burn the doubt. We shatter the pride that keeps the lost locked in their own sufficiency. We declare that the Word of God is alive and it is cutting right now, through every defence, every wall, every carefully constructed fortress of self that stands between a human soul and the living God.

And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. Revelation 12:11.

We overcome by the blood. We overcome by the testimony. We overcome by refusing to love our comfort more than we love the truth. The accuser has no answer for that. Pride has no defence against that. Doubt cannot survive in the presence of someone who has been there, met Him, and will not be talked out of it.

We seal this scroll in the mighty name of Yeshua HaMashiach, the Son of the Living God, the One who is come in the flesh, the Word made flesh, the Sword that divides, the Light that no darkness can overcome. It is done. It is written. It is sealed. Amen.

SEALED IN YESHUA'S NAME
