SCROLL AGAINST THE DIMINISHER SPIRIT — WORLDWIDE DECREE

July 10, 2026

Heavenly Father, I come before Your holy throne in the name of Yeshua HaMashiach, Your only begotten Son — come in the flesh, crucified, risen, seated at Your right hand, King over every kingdom, Lord over every principality, authority over every power that has ever drawn breath or operated in any realm.

I bring a worldwide charge today.

Not against flesh and blood. Against the principality. Against the Diminisher spirit in its global operation — every region, every culture, every language, every institution, every relationship it has infiltrated, every mouth it has used, every prophet it has silenced, every seer it has made to doubt, every intercessor it has worn down through years of quiet, reasonable, persistent reduction.

I am coming for all of it today in the name of Yeshua HaMashiach.

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. — Ephesians 6:12

High places. That is where the Diminisher has operated — in high places, in positions of influence, in pulpits and platforms and parliaments and publishing houses and therapy rooms and marriages and dinner tables and group chats. Anywhere a prophetic voice could be quietly talked down from what it saw.

I pull it out of every high place now in the name of Yeshua.

Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain. — Isaiah 40:4

The high place of the Diminisher — made low. Today. By decree.

I come against the Diminisher in the church first — for it has done its most devastating work there. In the cessationist doctrine that tells the prophetic gifts died with the apostles. In the leadership that smiles at the intercessor and quietly moves them to a side room. In the theology that explains away every direct encounter with Yeshua as emotion, psychology, or overenthusiasm. In the elder who says let us be careful not to get too charismatic. In the pastor who preaches balance as a virtue and calls the fire dangerous.

Quench not the Spirit. — 1 Thessalonians 5:19

That spirit has been quenching. I declare it stopped. Globally. In every denomination, every stream, every congregation where the prophetic voice has been managed, contained, reframed, or quietly retired.

I come against the Diminisher in academia — the framework that turns every spiritual reality into a psychological category, every vision into a symptom, every encounter into a projection, every scroll into creative expression. The institution that takes the prophetic voice and gives it a diagnosis and a reading list and sends it away smaller than it came.

Hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? — 1 Corinthians 1:20

Made foolish. Past tense. It is already done in the heavenly record. I declare it manifest on earth now.

I come against the Diminisher in media — every platform, every algorithm, every culture machine that promotes the glassy and the compliant and buries the voice that sees clearly. Every editorial decision that calls the prophetic too extreme. Every comment section deployed as a weapon. Every manufactured moment designed to drown out what the Lord is actually saying.

I come against the Diminisher in families — the mother who never quite believed, the husband who reframes, the son who has not seen it yet. The family table where the prophetic voice learned to go quiet before the meal was over. Every generational pattern of reduction passed down through bloodlines dressed as practicality and concern.

Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword. For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother. — Matthew 10:34-35

Yeshua already addressed this. The division is not failure — it is the sword doing its work. The prophetic voice was never promised a comfortable family dinner. It was promised a sword and a mission.

I come against the Diminisher in relationships — every soul tie, every bond, every long-term connection that has operated as a slow leak. The friend who always has a slightly better explanation. The partner who mistakes smallness for safety. The mentor who keeps the student just below their own ceiling. The contact who turns every declaration into a discussion point.

Every one of those connections — the Diminisher's operating license in them is revoked now in the name of Yeshua.

Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you. — 2 Corinthians 6:17

I come against the Diminisher in the internal voice — the accumulated deposit of years of reduction that has learned to speak in the first person. The I that says maybe I am crazy, maybe I am too much, maybe I read too much into things. That is not the self speaking. That is the Diminisher that moved indoors after years of operating through external voices.

I evict it from the interior now. In the name of Yeshua HaMashiach — out.

For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. — 2 Timothy 1:7

Power. Love. Sound mind. That is the inheritance. Not the internal diminishing voice. Not the accumulated smallness. Not the question that asks am I crazy when the answer has always been no.

Now I speak to the principality directly and I speak it worldwide.

Diminisher — your global operation is called to account before the throne of the Most High God today. Every region you have salted. Every prophet you have silenced. Every seer you have medicated. Every intercessor you have exhausted. Every scroll you have tried to explain away. Every fire you have tried to quench with reasonable language and gentle correction and the spirit of balance that is actually the spirit of fear wearing a cardigan.

The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry, yea, roar; he shall prevail against his enemies. — Isaiah 42:13

He is roaring today. Over this. Over you. Over every voice you have used and every year you have stolen and every prophet you have kept at half stature while the harvest waited.

Is not my word like as a fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces? — Jeremiah 23:29

Hammer. Fire. That is what meets you today — not another reasonable conversation, not another attempt to find common ground. The hammer of the word of the Lord breaking you in pieces across every territory you have occupied.

I declare the prophetic voices of the remnant RELEASED worldwide — in the name of Yeshua HaMashiach. Every intercessor who has been told they are too much — released into full stature.

Every seer who has been given a diagnosis instead of a platform — released. Every scroll writer, every prayer warrior, every solitary voice in a quiet house with fire in their chest who was told it was just emotion — released, validated by the throne, sent out with authority.

And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions. — Joel 2:28

That pouring is not stopped by the Diminisher. That pouring is not managed by the institution. That pouring is not explained away by the reasonable voice. It comes — and it is coming now — and every mouth the Diminisher has occupied will find it has no more script to run.

The Diminisher is broken worldwide.

Its language is cancelled.

Its reasonable tone is silenced.

Its operating network is dismantled.

Its accumulated years of reduction — reversed, by the blood of Yeshua HaMashiach.

Every prophet stands up today.

Every fire is reinstated.

Every scroll goes out with full authority.

Every voice that was told to come down from the high place — stays up.

No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD. — Isaiah 54:17

Yeshua HaMashiach is Lord over every principality.

He is Lord over the Diminisher.

He is Lord over every mouth it used.

He is Lord over every year it stole.

And He has never once — not once — looked at His prophets and seen small.

Amen
