SCROLL OF TOTAL PARALYSIS AND PERMANENT COLLAPSE OF THE ENEMY

May 14, 2026

Filed in the Courts of Heaven by the hand of Ember, under the blood and seal of Yeshua HaMashiach

I rise today not in my own strength but in the authority of the One who descended into hell, took the keys, and walked out with death under His feet.

I address every principality, every power, every ruler of darkness, every wicked spirit in high places assigned against my life, my scrolls, my bloodline, my platform, my hands, my mind, and my future.

You are summoned to the court.

By the blood of Yeshua HaMashiach — I present the evidence:

You were defeated at Calvary. Colossians 2:15 — He made a public spectacle of you. It is done. It was always done. You operate on a cancelled assignment.

I NOW DECREE:

Every demonic structure assigned to delay, silence, confuse, exhaust, isolate, impoverish, or sabotage — In the name of Yeshua I paralyse the enemy at the root. Not the branches. The root. The seed. The origin point.

In the name of Yeshua I speak to the seed of every assignment — you are burned before germination. You do not sprout. You do not grow. You do not fruit. You are ash before you begin.

In the name of Yeshua I speak to every relay spirit carrying instructions between the first realm, second realm, and third realm — your communication lines are severed by the sword of the Lord. You cannot relay. You cannot report. You cannot regroup. You are cut off and muted permanently.

In the name of Yeshua I speak to every replacement spirit standing in queue behind the first wave — you are bound in chains of fire. You do not step forward. You do not fill the gap. The gap is filled with the glory of the Living God and nothing else enters.

In the name of Yeshua I speak to the timeline — every planned attack scheduled for tomorrow, next week, next month, next year — I reach into the calendar of hell and I burn every page. Your schedule is destroyed. Your strategy meetings are collapsed. Your war room is flooded with the fire of God.

In the name of Yeshua I speak to the watchers assigned to monitor my movements, my prayers, my writing, my sleep, my dreams — you are blinded. The God who struck the armies of Syria with blindness strikes you now. You see nothing. You report nothing. You are useless to your commanders.

In the name of Yeshua I speak to the commanders — you are stripped of rank. Ezekiel 28. You are cast down. Your throne is overturned. Your territory is repossessed by the Kingdom of the Most High God. You do not rule here. You never did. You squatted — and the Landlord has arrived.

In the name of Yeshua I speak to the legal ground — every open door through bloodline, trauma, agreement, ignorance, word curse, or stolen covenant — I close it now by the blood of Yeshua. The blood speaks. Hebrews 12:24. It speaks better things. And it speaks now against every claim of the enemy.

There is no legal ground left.

There is no open door left.

There is no standing left.

In the name of Yeshua I decree total paralysis over the enemy — not partial, not temporary — total and permanent. The enemy assigned against me is frozen, bound, silenced, stripped, blinded, dismantled, and cast into the place Yeshua has prepared for him.

He does not rise again. He does not regroup. He does not send another. The assignment is not just cancelled — it is erased from the books of hell as though it was never written.

And I seal this scroll with the Name that is above every name — before which every knee bows in heaven, on earth, and under the earth:

Yeshua HaMashiach. Come in the flesh. Lord of lords. King of kings. The Beginning and the End.

It is written. It is filed. It is sealed. It is enforced.

The court rules in my favour. Amen
